Remember the Titans

In 1971, at the old desegregated T. C. Williams High School, Herman Boone (Denzel Washington), also derogatorily known as Coach "Boone," is hired as head coach for the school's football team. He takes the place promised to former head coach Bill Yoast (Will Patton). Yoast at first refuses Boone's offer as the assistant head coach, but then changes his mind after his white players pledge to boycott if he doesn't coach.

The black and white members of the football team clash in racially-motivated conflicts on a few occasions while at football camp but, after forceful coaxing and team building efforts by Coach Boone, the team achieves as well as success.

After returning from camp, Boone is told by a member of the school board that if he loses even one game, he gets fired, putting more pressure on himself. The Titans go through the season while battling racial prejudice, before slowly gaining support from the community. Just before the state semi-finals, Yoast is presented as a candidate for the state high school Hall of Fame, and the board tells Yoast that he will be inducted after the Titans lose their game. To find out more, we will see you at movie night.

Movie Recommendations for Life Groups.

The Cross is the story of one man carrying a twelve-foot wooden cross on a pilgrimage around the world. It is a mission of love, peace, blessings and Jesus. It is one man walking out his purpose and destiny, one step at a time. This compelling story is an inspiration and an adventure of life on the roads of the world and the reactions of people to the cross and, more importantly, its life-changing message. See Jim Mains if you would like to show this movie.

God Grew Tired of Us explores the indomitable spirit of three "Lost Boys" from the Sudan who leave their homeland, triumph over seemingly insurmountable adversities and move to America, where they build active and fulfilling new lives but remain deeply committed to helping the friends and family they have left behind.
