LUNCH OUT

Mark your calendars for the annual Lunch out on July 31st after church services. This year we will be going to Bertucci's Italian Restaurant in the Montgomery Mall parking lot. Ladies Book Club

We will be meeting on July 28th at 7:00 pm at Pam White's house.

Our new book is called Evensong by Gail Godwin.

In the tight-knit Smoky Mountain town of High Balsam, several weeks before the new millennium, Margaret Bonner finds herself pondering the notion of marriage. "I was mystified anew by this whole thing we humans do when we take it into our heads to love one particular person," she muses. At 33, she is the first woman pastor of All Saints Episcopal Church, and her husband, Adrian, is the headmaster of a progressive high school. The Bonners are in a marital slump--Adrian's self-loathing exasperates his younger, more passionate wife and she can't resist imagining what life would be like without him. Yet as the end of the century approaches, they are forced to turn their attention outward and respond to the escalating needs of their North Carolina community. The appearance of three colorful misfits brings matters to a head. Grace Munger, an aggressive fundamentalist Christian, is on a crusade to organize a "Millennium Birthday March for Jesus"; Brother Tony, a chatty 80-year-old itinerant who's taken up the life of a Benedictine monk, has a particular interest in Adrian; and Chase, a 16-year-old delinquent, harbors a thirst for liquor, with calamitous consequences.

HELP NEEDED

Children's Worship for 2s and 3s

We are still in need for volunteers for the summer months. You can take a whole month or split one with someone else. Don't feel intimidated by preparing a lesson for our little kids; there are lessons already prepared and ready. We just need a warm heart to teach them. Sign up on the BB or see Shelly Michiels for more information.
